CALL TO WORSHIP (Please stand as you are able.)

We celebrate today our mothers who bore us and cradled us as infants.

We also remember mothers who have lost their children through illness or violence, whose tears still flow from their broken hearts.

We cherish our families who have sheltered us from harm and who provided for our daily needs.

We remember families who are separated and those exiled from the land of their birth by frontiers, by barbed wire, and by war's violence.

We express gratitude to our spiritual mothers and fathers who guided us throughout life, modeling for us the love of God.

We hold up mothers of diverse religions and creeds who experience life in different ways—those who are comforted and encouraged by what they believe and those who struggle to find meaning and hope in their faith.

On this Mother's Day, we come to worship the living God, to honor our mothers, and to find solace and peace in the goodness that life brings;

Acknowledging the joys and sorrows of life, we hope to depart this place transformed by Christ's Spirit that we may express compassion, seek justice, show mercy, and pursue peace wherever our lives may lead.

UNISON PRAYER

For all the mothers who are still with us, and for those who are gone, we give thanks today. For all those who mothered us, some in addition to our own mothers, some in place of absent mothers, we recognize you, and give thanks for you.

For all women who have been figures of grace and love in our lives, your example has been meaningful to us. We pray that this day brings memories of light and love and for those whose memories bring only hurt we pray that those memories be set aside for a time and forgiveness be our way to deal with those difficult times. We pray in the name of the Christ. Amen.

SILENT PRAYER/PASTORAL PRAYER

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
