“The Canticle of St. Francis of Assisi”

Oh, Lord, yours is the PRAISE, the GLORY, the HONOR and every benediction;

To you alone, these do belong.

Be praised, our Lord, for the Sun that dawns and lightens us;

And, beautiful and radiant with great splendor, signifies YOU.

Be praised, our Lord, for the Moon and the Stars that you have made bright and precious and beautiful.

Be praised, our Lord for the Wind, and for the air and clouds and the clear sky and for all weathers through which you give sustenance to your creatures.

Be praised, our Lord, for the Water, that is very useful and precious.

Be praised, our Lord, for the Fire, to illuminate the night,

Be praised, our Lord, for Our Mother Earth, that cherishes and keep us, and produces various fruits with colored flowers and the grass.

Be praised, our Lord, for those who forgive through love, and endure sickness and tribulation; blessed are they who endure in peace; for by you, they will be crowned.

Blessed are those that have found your most holy will, for their death shall do them no hurt.

We PRAISE you. We give you our THANKS, and we offer to SERVE YOU with HUMILITY. AMEN
